

KIANNA PEPPERS

Kianna's dance journey began when she was very young, though she briefly stepped away at age six. Her passion was reignited in high school when she joined the California Academy of Mathematics and Science (CAMS) Dance Team, where she eventually served as a board member. This pivotal experience instilled a renewed love for dance, leading her to pursue formal training in Ballet, Jazz, Modern, and other dance modalities at El Camino College and CSU Long Beach. Dance continues to reshape her life as an outlet for healing, and she is deeply committed to inspiring the next generation as a patient and enthusiastic teacher.
