

KELSEY BULLOCK

Miss Kelsey began dancing at the age of three and has been teaching at various locations in Los Angeles and the South Bay for over 15 years. In addition to dancing, she has been in numerous theatrical productions as a singer and actress. She graduated from USC with a BFA in studio art and also works as a freelance artist, graphic designer and photographer. She loves her students and is passionate about making her classes a fun and supportive environment.