CAITLYN O'HARA

Caitlyn O'Hara started dancing at the age of 3, training primarily in ballet. She started dancing at Pacific Dance Center at the age of 11, participating in the Nutcracker and Spring Productions. She trained at the Rock School for Dance Education in 2021 during their summer intensive program. This past year, she joined the Mira Costa High School Dance Team where she has been able to continue her training in jazz and hip hop. She currently trains at Launch Dance Center and is very excited to teach.