

Riley Saavedra

Riley Saavedra started her dance journey at the age of 3, transitioning between ballet and competitive teams until the age of 10. She then joined Pacific Dance Center where she trained and performed as a company dancer for 8 years.

Throughout those years, she increased her training in ballet, jazz, contemporary, tap, and modern. In 2024, she received her Bachelors of Science in Kinesiology with a minor in Dance at California State University, San Marcos. During her time as an undergraduate student, she also interned at Oceanside Physical Therapy and obtained many skills in the strengthening and treatment of injuries. Her love and passion for dance has led her to continue teaching students of all ages in an empowering and inclusive environment.
